Per Board policy, tuition fees must be received before a student may attend classes.

Board Policy 4.40 - TUITION AND FEES

Enrollment is a contract between parents or guardians and the School. Parents and guardians are responsible for the timely payment of tuition and all other fees and charges.

All tuition and fees are non-refundable, but are transferable. In the event that a student withdraws before the end of the school year, the entity that has paid the tuition fee is entitled to apply the fee to another student provided in each case that:

1. The student to which the transferred fee is being applied is from the same entity as the withdrawing student;
2. The student to which the transferred fee is being applied is a new student to AISA;
3. There is space available for the new student;
4. The entity supplements any differences in the tuition fee for the withdrawing student and the new student; and
5. Fee transfers may not be carried over from one school year to another.

All tuition and fees are to be paid at the beginning of the school year. Tuition payments for students who are admitted during the school year will be prorated by Quarter.

Students may not attend class until payment has been received by the bank.

Per the Agreement, Algerian students shall make payments in Algerian dinars. All others must make payments in U.S. currency to the school's bank in the U.S.

Thank you and we look forward to welcoming your family into the AISA Community!
